

Remembering the forgotten

3rd December, 1984 a dreadful night in which thousands of people lost their lives and many got handicapped. This night will always be remembered in the history of Bhopal. The MIC gas was leaked in the atmosphere and got mixed with water and just due to carelessness of few employees of Union Carbide thousands of Bhopali's had to pay their lives.

In remembrance of this night horrifying event the boys of KSHITIJ boarding at The Sanskaar Valley School meditated in the morning on Saturday 3rd December at KALANJALI.

In evening the KSHITIJ boarding organized a screening of the movie “Bhopal: A prayer for rain “for the PRERNA (girls boarding) and ARPAN (residential staff).

