

Dear Parents,

Parenting Brings Joy and responsibility – Frustration and Satisfaction

But how often do we sit back and reflect on our parenting styles?
How many times do we consider the psychological needs of our child?
Have you ever felt the need of an expert to guide you through the demanding world of parenting?

We at The Sanskaar Valley School are glad to invite you for a “Positive Parenting Workshop” with Terracotta Capabilities, New Delhi. Terracotta is a trusted name in Parenting and Life Skills’ education across schools in Delhi, Mumbai and Pune.

The workshop will take you through the world of positive parenting and life skills education. During the workshop you will discover-

- The needs of your child at various life stages in the 21st Century
- Bringing the required change in your child’s attitude and behavior
- Understanding the potential of your child
- The art of communication with your child
- Where are the new age parents going wrong in handling the new age children?
