

Celebration Week

The last week of the session is always an exciting one at Aadhar, the school's pre-primary block. It is packed with activities to keep the students engaged, like playing games, enjoying music and drawing on a theme. They were all over the school campus — on the steps of the amphitheatre or even lying on the grass. The children spent time basking in the sun.