Bhopal: District level Subroto Cup football tournament will begin at Army Public School today. A total of 32 teams will participate in the event, which will be played in three age groups- under-14 and 17 for boys and under-17 for girls.

Physical education teacher of Army Public School Vivek Gaud informed that the event will conclude with prize distribution ceremony on June 29.

“Winners of their respective age-group will play in the divisional-level event scheduled in Sehore between July 1 and 7,” he added.

Principal Seema Dwivedi said that the winners and runners-up will be given trophies. “Prizes will also be given to players, who will excel in the tournament,” she added.
