

SVN 'Save Water' competition

The social service group 'Aashiyan' of Sopaan, middle block of the school, organised a painting competition on 'Save Water' for the students of Sanskaar Vidya Niketan, which is a school for underprivileged girls. The students were asked to share their thoughts and ideas on how to save water through their paintings. The school had provided the materials for the competition. The children were very creative in emphasising the importance of water and the irreversible repercussions that we may face if we fail to conserve it. The girls drew dams, rivers and lakes, all of which had dried up, to drive home the point.

Solo and duet singing competition

The music department of the school organised an inter-house solo and duet singing competition for Classes IX to XII on the theme 'Sky is not the limit'. The participants were excited ever since the event was announced. Songs like 'You Raise Me Up', 'I'm Alive' and 'Euphoria' rocked the show. The audience was seen enjoying and cheering for their respective houses. The judges for the event were music producer Abin Thomas and lead guitarist of band Bandishein Jugal Shrivastava. The winners of the competition were Satya house. The first position was bagged by Tashi Kamladin of Class X-E, while Shailja Tripathi of Class XII-H came second and Khushi Pandey of IX-C won the third position.
