

Swarangetram, a musical performance

The music department of the school organised a choir presentation of classes II & III students to test the students' learning outcome through the year. Students presented songs of different genres. The audience comprised teachers, management, staff and children.

