Bhopal: The music department of The Sanskaar Valley School organised the Swarangetram Band Competition for Grades IX-XII on Thursday. Keeping to the theme of the competition, Renditions from My Heart — Dil Se, the students exhibited their innovativeness as they presented their musical performances at the band competition.

The competition witnessed the participation of 16 students who were spread over three bands — Ether, The Unmute and Black Floyd — that rocked to such English numbers as Rolling in the Deep, Radioactive and so forth, and also presented soulful renditions of such Hindi chartbusters as Nadaan Parindey, Kaun Hoon and Ek Taara.

The competition was a real success as the students came up with some really nice tracks and the audience was seen enjoying and cheering after each and every performance. Members of the staff also applauded and cheered for the participants.

BLACK FLOYD WON HEARTS

- Judging the contest participants, Joshua Pagare, a musician, vocalist & composer, & Anuja Sharma, a lead Western vocalist with such rock bands as Astitva, Rooh, Dhwani and G-clef, were in a dilemma over choosing the winner from among such exceptional performers
- Black Floyd won the competition
